

WebRecon Announces Free ‘Professional Courtesy’ Accounts for Collection Agencies, Law Firms, Debt Buyers and Creditors Nationwide

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Grand Rapids, MI (October 10, 2012) – WebRecon LLC is pleased to announce a new service level that will help collection agencies, law firms, debt buyers and creditors better research those consumers and attorneys who have made a career of filing or threatening litigation under FDCPA, FCRA, TCPA and other consumer protection statutes.

And it won’t cost any of them a penny.

Effective immediately, WebRecon has opened up a new, free account level that will allow up to ten monthly searches against its proprietary database of federal and state/city/county consumer litigants.

This is not a “trial”, a “bait and switch” or a gimmick of any kind. This is a free account, plain and simple.

The only requirements to qualify for one of these accounts are to be a legitimate company engaged in debt collection activities and to be a current member of ACA International, DBA International or NARCA.

With this account, searches will find plaintiffs filing lawsuits under:

- FDCPA
- FCRA
- TCPA
- and much more

These searches include virtually all cases filed in federal courts, plus, tens of thousands of lawsuits filed all over the country in:

- State courts
- City courts
- County courts
- And even small claims courts

To sign up for a free account online, any interested and qualified candidate should head to www.webrecon.com/free

For more information, please contact:

Jack Gordon, CEO, WebRecon LLC, The Bureau of Litigant Data
Web: www.WebRecon.com, Email: admin@webrecon.net, Phone: (616) 682-5327

###